In a letter dated 23 August to Ahmet BALSIFI, T.A. XHEVIT, an Albanian residing in Germany, sends congratulations for the safe return of BALSIFI. He says that he understands how many hardships they had to undergo but duty to one's country obliges one to endure all kinds of hardships and privations. He says that persons like BALSIFI who have gone two or three times must have experienced many of them. XHEVIT writes that Hasan DOSTI, President, had arrived about two weeks earlier and "has given us to understand in a few words that we shall liberate the Fatherland after the elections in the United States."
